

GUINNESS WORLD RECORD SAND ANGELS ATTEMPT

OCTOBER 28, 2017

STEWARDS

Responsibilities:

Each steward will be allocated a specific group of participants, not to exceed 50.

Each steward will have participants stand far enough apart so that when one spreads their arms they cannot touch other participants.

Each steward must supervise their group during the attempt to ensure full participation.

Each steward must monitor if anyone in their group leaves the area.

The steward must note any participants who need to be deducted from the final total either for non-participation or for leaving the allocated area.

Each steward must ensure their participants conduct the sand angel for the required 15 seconds.

Each steward must sign a statement verifying the exact number of their participants successfully completing the sand angels.

I _____ am performing the duties listed above as a volunteer. I understand the importance of the function I am performing and will ensure accuracy and honesty.
